Privacy Statement

The Calgary Heritage Weavers and Spinners Guild respects your privacy. We do not sell, rent or trade our mailing list. Information that you provide will only be used for the purposes of conducting guild business.

All effort is made to ensure that information is accurate and up to date. A membership list is mailed to current guild members to facilitate communication between members. Any additional use of information will be with the consent of the individual member. Contact via email and telephone is for communication purposes only and members may opt out of this service at their request. A Membership list is kept in the studio.

The Heritage Weavers and Spinners Guild website has been developed for the benefit of our members and anyone interested in learning more about our organization. Photos of events and members work are posted on the website. Your permission for this is obtained annually when you complete your membership application / renewal.
